To Whom It May Concern

I recommend Thomas Pokorny of HJ Pokorny Construction LLC (HJP) to your organization without reservation. HJP has extensive experience in all areas of commercial general contracting services. It shows with their quality of service, knowledge base and creativity that makes a significant impact to ensure that the project is completed per the planes and agreed specifications.

Over the last nine months, HJP has constructed two Orange Theory Fitness Centers, their experience and skills became very obvious as the projects progressed. They were able to work closely with the subcontractors and village personnel to overcome any unforeseen problems, pivot with change requests and keep the projects on track, on time and in budget.

Thomas is always available to personally respond to our questions or concerns and does not hesitate to do so day or night. In short our relationship with Thomas Pokorny and HJP is a satisfied and valuable relationship.

Please feel free to contact me personally with any questions regarding my recommendation.

Sincerely,
Providence Venture Studio 8LLC
